

2020 Children's Programming

*Co-funding opportunity available

Puget Sounds Wind Quintet

(Flute, oboe, clarinet, French horn and bassoon)

Peter and The Wolf; Ferdinand the Bull; or Mother Goose Stories

- Anchored around your choice of these three timeless classics set to music with narration
- Musical instrument demonstration given by each player
- “Hidden music” – we perform a classical piece with a children’s song embedded within (children are asked to “find” the song)
- Additional classic children’s songs, movie or musical theater selections (Rainbow Connection, Aladdin, Toy Story, Mother Goose Suite are examples)
- Holiday selections when appropriate
- Potential for vocalist to join the ensemble
- One-hour performance

*Opportunity for co-funding if the performance is free and open to the public. With co-funding, remaining fee obligation of sponsoring organization starts at $435.

Puget Duo Top to Bottom (and everything in between)

(Piccolo and Double Bass duo, with other instruments)

Classics for children performed on funny high/low duo; and instrument demonstrations

- Whimsical music delivered with humor on the highest and lowest instruments of the orchestra
- With their instrumental doubling skills, the two musicians demonstrate piccolo and double bass, plus other instruments in the middle range of the orchestra (such as flute, clarinet, saxophone, violin, and cello)
- Performance of light-hearted classical music with children’s songs embedded within (children are asked to “find” the song)
- Additional children’s songs, movie or musical theater selections (Rainbow Connection, Harry Potter, Toy Story, Hobbits, etc.)
- Holiday selections when appropriate
- One-hour performance

*Opportunity for co-funding if the performance is free and open to the public. With co-funding, fee to sponsoring organization starts at $285.
